A delightful dinner is served in the festive setting of the Anderida Restaurant which can be followed by a night-cap in the Cocktail Bar or cosy drawing rooms with a warm glow from the open log fires.

Christmas Eve

The day starts with a hearty breakfast for those who joined us on the 23rd, followed by a morning at leisure or maybe a trip to the historical town of Tunbridge Wells for those last minute gifts.

Or, arrive at your leisure, giving yourself plenty of time to explore the hotel and wider estate (Wellington boots recommended). If your room is not ready the Concierge team will be delighted to take care of your luggage and deliver it when ready.

Afternoon Tea will be served in the elegant drawing rooms giving you the opportunity to catch up with friends, family and loved ones.

The evening begins with a Champagne and Canape Reception in the lounges, accompanied by our Carol Singers in the Front Hall spreading the traditional Christmas cheer and festive good tidings to all.

Dinner will be served in the Anderida Restaurant, followed by a televised Midnight Mass with hot toddies and mince pies. Alternatively, Midnight Mass at Holy Trinity Church in Forest Row is available for those who wish to attend.

25TH DECEMBER

Christmas Day

After waking early to the excitement of finding out what Santa has delivered, take a leisurely breakfast then enjoy a traditional Christmas Day with crisp walks through the woods, reading on the sofa or maybe a family board game by the fire. Whatever it is you do, tea, coffee, mulled wine and mince pies are available in the Lounges throughout the day.

Lunch, a lavish festive buffet, is available from midday in the elegant Richard Towneley Suite, our magnificent early 20th century chapel built by the Order of Notre Dame and adorned with some of the finest examples of Harry Clark stained glass windows. Our jazz trio play throughout to add a little extra Christmas Spirit.

For those wanting to walk off lunch, try our estate treasure hunt, perfect for exploring the grounds and earning prizes. Alternatively, take a little peace and quiet in the comfort of your own room or maybe relax in the lounge with tea and Christmas Cake where the King's Christmas message will be shown.

The festivities of the day culminate with Champagne and canapés in the drawing rooms before enjoying a delectable four-course Christmas dinner in the Anderida Restaurant.
